Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

Section 1. R.S. 4:193(B) is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

§193. Categories of persons subject to exclusion and ejection; civil liberties

CODING: Words in ~~struck through~~ type are deletions from existing law; words underscored are additions.

B. No person may be excluded or ejected on account of race, color, creed, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, ancestry, disability, as defined in R.S. 51:2232~~(11)~~, or gender.

Section 2. R.S. 9:3583 is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

§3583. Discrimination prohibited

A. It shall be unlawful for any extender of credit to refuse to extend credit to any major or emancipated minor solely because of that person's race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, disability, or marital status.

B. It shall also be unlawful for any extender of credit to require any major or emancipated minor to meet credit qualification standards not required of other persons similarly situated.

Section 3. R.S. 12:1041 is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

§1041. Suppression of criminally operated businesses by domestic and foreign corporations; proceedings

A. The attorney general is authorized to institute civil proceedings against any domestic corporation to procure a judgment annulling, vacating or forfeiting its articles of incorporation and franchise, and against any foreign corporation to revoke its certificate of authority to transact business in this state when:

~~1.~~(1) Any of the corporation officers or any other person controlling the management or operation of such corporation, with the knowledge of the president and a majority of the board of directors or under such circumstances that the president and a majority of the directors should have knowledge, is a person or persons engaged in activities such as organized violent revolutionary or unlawful activity aimed at the overthrow of the government of the State of Louisiana or any of its political subdivisions, or any boards, commissions, agency or official of either, or any unlawful activity aimed at ~~organized homosexuality,~~ organized crimes against nature, organized prostitution, organized gambling, organized narcotics, organized

extortion or organized embezzlement, or who is connected directly or indirectly with organizations, syndicates or criminal societies engaged in any of these; or

~~2.~~(2) A director, officer, employee, agent or stockholder acting for, through or on behalf of such corporation has, in conducting the corporation's affairs, purposely engaged in a persistent course of violent revolutionary or unlawful activity aimed at the overthrow of the government of the State of Louisiana or any of its political subdivisions, or any boards, commissions, agency or official or any unlawful activity aimed at ~~homosexuality,~~ crimes against nature, intimidation and coercion, bribery, prostitution, gambling, extortion, embezzlement, unlawful sale of narcotics or other illegal conduct, with the knowledge of the president and majority of the board of directors or under such circumstances that the president and a majority of the directors should have knowledge, with the intent to compel or induce other persons, firms or corporations to deal with such corporation or engage in any such illegal conduct, and

~~3.~~(3) For the prevention of future illegal conduct of the same character, the public interest requires the charter of the corporation to be annulled, vacated or forfeited and the corporation to be dissolved or the certificate of authority to transact business in this state revoked.

B.(1) The proceedings authorized by this section may be instituted against a corporation in the district court for the parish of its registered office or for any parish in which it is doing business. The proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure and the applicable rules of court.

(2) The proceedings herein authorized shall be in addition to any other proceeding authorized by law for the purpose of annulling, vacating or forfeiting the articles and franchise of a domestic corporation and/or revoking the certificate of authority of a foreign corporation to transact business in this state.

Section 4. R.S. 14:107.2(A) and 326(C) are hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

CODING: Words in ~~struck through~~ type are deletions from existing law; words underscored are additions.

§107.2. Hate crimes

A. It shall be unlawful for any person to select the victim of the following offenses against person and property because of actual or perceived race, age, gender, gender identity or expression, religion, color, creed, disability, sexual orientation, national origin, or ancestry of that person or the owner or occupant of that property or because of actual or perceived membership or service in, or employment with, an organization: first or second degree murder; manslaughter; battery; aggravated battery; second degree battery; aggravated assault with a firearm; terrorizing; mingling harmful substances; simple or third degree rape, forcible or second degree rape, or aggravated or first degree rape; sexual battery, second degree sexual battery; oral sexual battery; carnal knowledge of a juvenile; indecent behavior with juveniles; molestation of a juvenile or a person with a physical or mental disability; simple, second degree, or aggravated kidnapping; simple or aggravated arson; communicating of false information of planned arson; simple or aggravated criminal damage to property; contamination of water supplies; simple or aggravated burglary; criminal trespass; simple, first degree, or armed robbery; purse snatching; extortion; theft; desecration of graves; institutional vandalism; or assault by drive-by shooting.

§326. Processions, marches, parades, or demonstrations; permits; liability; bond; exemptions; penalty

C. The provisions of this Section shall apply to all groups, associations, or organizations regardless of race, creed, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, disability, as defined in R.S. 51:2232~~(11)~~, color, or political beliefs of its members; however, nothing contained herein shall apply to a bona fide legitimate labor organization or professional firefighter or police association or to any lawful activity of a labor union permitted by law, nor shall these provisions apply to any procession or parade directly held or sponsored by the governing authority of any municipality or the governing authority of any parish, nor shall these provisions apply to any procession, march, or parade directly held or sponsored by a bona fide organization specifically for the celebration of Mardi Gras ~~and/~~or directly related prelenten or carnival festivities, school parades or other functions, parish parades or other functions, state, parish, or municipal fairs or other such related activities. However, the provisions of this Section shall apply only to parishes with a population of more than four hundred fifty thousand.

Section 5. R.S. 15:1204.2(B)(4) and 1402(A) are hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

§1204.2. Creation of system; functions; powers; duties

B. The system, by and through the commission, shall have the following functions, powers, and duties:

* * *

(4) To prepare and distribute, to all such persons and agencies, forms to be used in reporting data to the system. The forms shall provide for information regarding crimes which are directed against individuals or groups, or their property, by reason of their actual or perceived race, age, gender, gender identity or expression, religion, color, creed, disability, sexual orientation, national origin, or ancestry or by reason of their actual or perceived membership or service in, or employment with, an organization as defined in R.S. 14:107.2. The forms shall also provide for other items of information needed by federal and state bureaus or departments engaged in the development of national and state statistics.

§1402. Legislative findings and declaration

A. The legislature hereby finds and declares that it is the right of every person, regardless of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age, or disability, to be secure and protected from fear, intimidation, and physical harm caused by the activities of violent groups and individuals. It is not the intent of this Chapter to interfere with the constitutional exercise of the protected rights of freedom of expression and association. The legislature hereby recognizes the right of every citizen to harbor and constitutionally express beliefs on any lawful subject whatsoever, to associate lawfully with others who share similar beliefs, to petition lawfully constituted authority for a redress of perceived grievances, and to participate in the electoral process.

CODING: Words in ~~struck through~~ type are deletions from existing law; words underscored are additions.

Section 6. R.S. 17:111, 158(F), 1676(D), 2053(D)(3), 3402(A), and 3991(B)(3) are hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

§111. Discrimination in public schools prohibited; pupil assignment; religious educational institutions

A. No person shall be refused admission into or be excluded from any public school in the state of Louisiana on account of race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, disability, as defined in R.S. 51:2232~~(11)~~, or national origin.

B. Except with the express approval of a board of education or school board having jurisdiction, a majority of the members of such board having been elected, no student shall be assigned or compelled to attend any school on account of race, creed, color, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, disability, or national origin, or for the purpose of achieving equality in attendance or increased attendance or reduced attendance, at any school, of persons of one or more particular races, creeds, colors, sexual orientations, gender identities or expressions, disabilities, or national origins, and no school district, school zone or attendance unit, by whatever name known, shall be established, reorganized or maintained for any such purpose, provided that nothing contained in this ~~section~~ Section shall prevent the assignment of a pupil in the manner requested or authorized by his parents or guardian, and provided further that nothing in this Act shall be deemed to affect, in any way, the right of a religious or denominational educational institution to select its pupils exclusively or primarily from members of such religion or denomination or from giving preference to such selection to such members or to make such selection to its pupils as is calculated to promote the religious principle for which it is established.

§158. School buses for transportation of students; employment of bus operators; alternative means of transportation; improvement of school bus turnarounds; loading and unloading students

F. The provisions of this Section shall apply to eligible public and nonpublic school students. However, these provisions shall not apply to any student or the parent or tutor of any student who attends a school which discriminates on the basis of race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or national origin.

§1676. Recipients and awards of scholarships

* * *

D. Scholarship awards shall be made without regard to the applicant's race, disability, as defined in R.S. 51:2232~~(11)~~, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, or ancestry; and in making scholarship awards, the department shall provide a fair and equitable geographical distribution of the awards and shall treat all approved institutions of higher education in a fair and equitable manner.

§2053. Payments to independent institutions of higher learning for educating Louisiana residents

* * *

D. As used in this Section, the term "eligible institutions" shall mean Centenary College, Dillard University, Our Lady of Holy Cross College, Louisiana

CODING: Words in ~~struck through~~ type are deletions from existing law; words underscored are additions.

College, Loyola University, Our Lady of the Lake College, St. Joseph Seminary College, Tulane University, and Xavier University, all in Louisiana. In order to qualify for payments made by the Board of Regents under this Section, eligible institutions shall:

(3) Admit students without regard to race, religion, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, disability, or national origin.

§3402. Minimum requirements for school certification; admission policies; environment; program

The minimum requirements for certification as a Montessori school shall be as follows:

A. Admission policies

All admissions in a Montessori school shall be open to all persons of all races, creeds, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or color, and to all persons with disabilities as defined in R.S. 51:2232~~(11)~~.

§3991. Charter schools; requirements; limitations; renewal; amendment; revocation

* * *

B. Each proposed charter shall contain or make provision for the following:

* * *

(3) Admission requirements, if any, that are consistent with the school's role, scope, and mission may be established pursuant to rules promulgated by the state board. Such admission requirements shall be specific and shall include a system for admission decisions which precludes exclusion of pupils based on race, religion, gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, intelligence level as ascertained by an intelligence quotient examination, or identification as a student with an exceptionality as defined in R.S. 17:1942(B). Such admission requirements may include, however, specific requirements related to a school's mission such as auditions for schools with a performing arts mission or proficiency in a foreign language for schools with a language immersion mission. Any school which was chartered prior to July 1, 2012, and which incorporated achievement of a certain academic record as part of its admission requirements may continue to utilize such admission requirements. No local board shall assign any pupil to attend a charter school.

Section 7. R.S. 22:1452(C)(25), 1454(A), and 1964(7)(f) are hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

§1452. Purpose of rate regulation; construction; definitions

C. As used in this Subpart, the following definitions shall be applicable:

(25) "Unfairly discriminatory" means not capable of being actuarially justified or based on race, color, creed, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, disability, or national origin. It does not refer to rates that produce differences in premiums for policyholders with different loss exposures, so long as the rate is actuarially justified and reflects such differences with reasonable accuracy.

§1454. Rating standards and methods

A. Rates shall not be inadequate or unfairly discriminatory in a competitive market. Rates shall not be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory in a noncompetitive market. Risks may be classified using any criteria except that no risk shall be classified on the basis of race, color, creed, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, disability, or national origin.

CODING: Words in ~~struck through~~ type are deletions from existing law; words underscored are additions.

§1964. Methods, acts, and practices which are defined as unfair or deceptive

The following are declared to be unfair methods of competition and unfair or deceptive acts or practices in the business of insurance:

(7) Unfair discrimination.

(f) Refusing to insure, refusing to continue to insure, or limiting the amount of coverage available to an individual solely because of the sex, marital status, race, religion, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, disability, or national origin of the individual. However, nothing in this Subsection shall prohibit an insurer from taking marital status into account for the purpose of defining persons eligible for dependent benefits. Nothing in this Section shall prohibit or limit the operation of fraternal benefit societies.

Section 8. R.S. 23:332 and 2043(B)(1) are hereby amended and reenacted and R.S. 23:302(9) and (10) are hereby enacted to read as follows:

§302. Definitions

For purposes of this Chapter and unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the following terms shall have the following meanings ascribed to them:

* * *

(9) "Sexual orientation" means an individual's actual or perceived heterosexuality, homosexuality, or bisexuality.

(10) "Gender identity or expression" means a gender-related identity, appearance, expression, or behavior of a person, regardless of the person's assigned sex at birth.

§332. Intentional discrimination in employment

A. It shall be unlawful discrimination in employment for an employer to engage in any of the following practices:

CODING: Words in ~~struck through~~ type are deletions from existing law; words underscored are additions.

(1) Intentionally fail or refuse to hire or to discharge any individual, or otherwise to intentionally discriminate against any individual with respect to compensation, or terms, conditions, or privileges of employment, because of the individual's race, color, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or national origin.

(2) Intentionally limit, segregate, or classify employees or applicants for employment in any way which would deprive or tend to deprive any individual of employment opportunities, or otherwise adversely affect the individual's status as an employee, because of the individual's race, color, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or national origin.

(3) Intentionally pay wages to an employee at a rate less than that of another employee of the opposite sex for equal work on jobs in which their performance requires equal skill, effort, and responsibility and which are performed under similar working conditions. An employer paying wages in violation of this Section may not reduce the wages of any other employee in order to comply with this Section.

B. It shall be unlawful discrimination in employment for an employment agency to intentionally fail or refuse to refer for employment, or otherwise to intentionally discriminate against, any individual because of his race, color, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or national origin, or to intentionally classify or refer for employment any individual on the basis of his race, color, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or national origin.

C. It shall be unlawful discrimination in employment for a labor organization to engage in any of the following practices:

(1) Intentionally exclude or intentionally expel from its membership, or otherwise intentionally discriminate against, any individual because of his race, color, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or national origin.

CODING: Words in ~~struck through~~ type are deletions from existing law; words underscored are additions.

(2) Intentionally limit, segregate, or classify its membership or applicants for membership, or intentionally classify or fail or refuse to refer for employment any individual in any way which would deprive or tend to deprive any individual of employment opportunities, or would limit such employment opportunities, or otherwise adversely affect his status as an employee or as an applicant for employment, because of such individual's race, color, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or national origin.

(3) Intentionally cause or attempt to cause an employer to discriminate against an individual in violation of this Section.

D. It shall be unlawful discrimination in employment for any employer, labor organization, or joint labor-management committee controlling apprenticeship or other training or retraining, including on-the-job training programs, to discriminate against any individual because of his race, color, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or national origin in admission to, or employment in, any program established to provide apprenticeship or other training.

E. It shall be unlawful discrimination in employment for an employer, employment agency, labor organization, or joint labor-management committee controlling apprenticeship or other training or retraining, including on-the-job training programs, to print or publish, or cause to be printed or published, any notice or advertisement relating to employment by an employer or membership in or any classification or referral for employment by a labor organization, or relating to any classification or referral for employment by an employment agency, or relating to admission to, or employment in, any program established to provide apprenticeship or other training by a joint labor-management committee, indicating any preference, limitation, specification, or discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or national origin. However, a notice or advertisement may indicate a preference, limitation, specification, or discrimination based on religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or national origin when religion, sex, or national origin is a bona fide occupational qualification for employment.

F. It shall be unlawful discrimination in employment for an insurer to engage in any of the following practices:

(1) Intentionally fail or refuse to appoint or to discharge any insurance agent, or otherwise to intentionally discriminate against any insurance agent with respect to his compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges of employment, because of the insurance agent's race, color, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or national origin.

(2) Intentionally limit, segregate, or classify his insurance agents or applicants for an insurance agent in any way which would deprive or tend to deprive any insurance agent or applicant of employment opportunities, or otherwise adversely affect his status as an insurance agent or applicant because of the insurance agent's or applicant's race, color, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or national origin.

G. Nothing contained in this Section shall be construed so as to create a cause of action against an employer, employment agency, labor organization, or insurer for employment practices pursuant to any affirmative action plan.

H. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section, it shall not be unlawful discrimination in employment for:

(1) An employer to hire and employ employees, for an employment agency to classify or refer for employment any individual, for a labor organization to classify its membership or to classify or refer for employment any individual, or for an employer, labor organization, or joint labor-management committee controlling apprenticeship or other training or retraining programs to admit or employ any individual in any such program on the basis of his religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or national origin in those certain instances where religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or national origin is a bona fide occupational qualification reasonably necessary for the normal operation of that particular business or enterprise.

(2) A school, college, university, or other educational institution or institution of learning to hire and employ employees of a particular religion if such school, college, university, or other educational institution or institution of learning is, in whole or in substantial part, owned, supported, controlled, or managed by a particular religion or by a particular religious corporation, association, or society, or if the curriculum of the school, college, university, or other educational institution or institution of learning is directed toward the propagation of a particular religion.

(3) An employer to apply different standards of compensation or different terms, conditions, or privileges of employment pursuant to a bona fide seniority or merit system, or a system which measures earnings by quantity or quality of production, or any other differential based on any factor other than sex, or to employees who work in different locations, provided that such differences are not the result of an intention to discriminate because of race, color, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or national origin.

(4) An employer to give and to act upon the results of any professionally developed ability test, provided that such test, its administration, or action upon the results is not designed, intended, or used to discriminate because of race, color, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or national origin.

§2043. Members

B.(1) In making the appointments, the governor shall, as nearly as practicable, appoint members in a manner that is representative of the population of the regions of the state and shall consider factors including but not limited to race,

Proposed law (R.S. 23:302(9) & (10)) add definitions of "sexual orientation" and "gender identity or expression" for purposes of the Louisiana Employment Discrimination Law and provisions for unlawful discrimination in employment. Defines "sexual orientation" as an individual's actual or perceived heterosexuality, homosexuality, or bisexuality. Defines "gender identity or expression" as a gender-related identity, appearance, expression, or behavior of a person, regardless of the person's assigned sex at birth.

Present law (R.S. 12:1041(A)) authorizes the attorney general to institute civil proceedings to annul, vacate, or forfeit the articles of incorporation and franchise of a domestic corporation, or to revoke the certificate of authority to transact business in this state of a foreign corporation when:

(1) A corporation officer or person controlling corporate management or operation, with the knowledge of the president and a majority of the board of directors or under circumstances such that they should have knowledge, is engaged in any unlawful activity aimed at organized homosexuality, organized crimes against nature, organized prostitution, organized gambling, organized narcotics, organized extortion or organized embezzlement; or

(2) A director, officer, employee, agent, or stockholder acting for such corporation has, in conducting the corporation's affairs, purposely engaged in any unlawful activity aimed at homosexuality, crimes against nature, intimidation and coercion, bribery, prostitution, gambling, extortion, embezzlement, unlawful sale of narcotics or other illegal conduct, with the knowledge of the president and majority of the board of directors or under such circumstances that they should have knowledge, with the intent to compel or induce other persons, firms, or corporations to deal with such corporation or engage in such illegal conduct; and

(3) For the prevention of future illegal conduct of the same character, the public interest requires the corporation charter to be annulled, vacated, or forfeited and the corporation to be dissolved or the certificate of authority to transact business in the state revoked.

Proposed law retains present law except removes references to homosexuality.
