(28) Providing conversion therapy, gender identity conversion therapy, or sexual orientation conversion therapy in violation of section 3 of this act.

Sec. 3. (1) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, a person holding a credential under the Medicine and Surgery Practice Act, the Mental Health Practice Act, the Nurse Practice Act, the Pharmacy Practice Act, or the Psychology Practice Act shall not provide conversion therapy, gender identity conversion therapy, or sexual orientation conversion therapy to any individual under nineteen years of age.

(2) For purposes of this section:

LB367

(a)(i) Conversion therapy means a practice that seeks to change an individual's sexual orientation or gender identity; and

(ii) Conversion therapy does not mean a practice that does not seek to change an individual's sexual orientation or gender identity and that:

(A) Is neutral with respect to sexual orientation and gender identity;

(B) Provides assistance to a patient or client undergoing gender transition;

(C) Provides acceptance, support, and understanding to a patient or client;

(D) Facilitates a patient's or client's ability to cope, develop social support, and explore or understand the patient or client; or

(E) Addresses unlawful or unsafe sexual activities in a manner that is neutral with respect to sexual orientation and gender identity;

(b) Gender identity conversion therapy means any psychotherapy, counseling, or treatment, the goal of which is to alter the gender-related identity of an individual so that such individual's gender identity, appearance, expression, or behavior is eliminated, reduced, or redirected to the individual's assigned sex at birth; and

(c) Sexual orientation conversion therapy means any psychotherapy, counseling, or treatment, the goal of which is to alter the sexual or romantic attraction, desire, or behavior of an individual toward other individuals of the same sex so that the attraction and behavior of such individual is eliminated, reduced, or redirected toward individuals of the opposite sex.

(3) A violation of subsection (1) of this section shall constitute a deceptive trade practice under the Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act and shall be subject to any remedies or penalties available for a violation of such act.

(4) This section does not apply to a practice or treatment conducted by a clergy member or religious counselor who is acting in a pastoral or religious capacity and not in the capacity of a health care professional.

(5) No state funds or funds belonging to a political subdivision of this state shall be expended for the purpose of:

(a) Conducting conversion therapy, gender identity conversion therapy, or sexual orientation conversion therapy;

(b) Referring an individual for conversion therapy, gender identity conversion therapy, or sexual orientation conversion therapy; or

(c) Providing health benefits coverage for conversion therapy, gender identity conversion therapy, or sexual orientation conversion therapy.

Sec. 4. Section 38-2894, Revised Statutes Cumulative Supplement, 2024, is amended to read:

38-2894 (1) A registration to practice as a pharmacy technician may be denied, refused renewal, removed, or suspended or have other disciplinary measures taken against it by the department, with the recommendation of the board, for failure to meet the requirements of or for violation of any of the provisions of subdivisions (1) through (18) and (20) through (28) ~~(27)~~ of section 38-178 and sections 38-2890 to 38-2897 or the rules and regulations adopted under such sections.

(2) If the department proposes to deny, refuse renewal of, or remove or suspend a registration, it shall send the applicant or registrant a notice setting forth the action to be taken and the reasons for the determination. The denial, refusal to renew, removal, or suspension shall become final thirty days after mailing the notice unless the applicant or registrant gives written notice to the department of his or her desire for an informal conference or for a formal hearing.

(3) Notice may be served by any method specified in section 25-505.01, or the department may permit substitute or constructive service as provided in section 25-517.02 when service cannot be made with reasonable diligence by any of the methods specified in section 25-505.01.
